

Eight bells in the mid-watch- COFFEE for the wheel & lookouts

Cold blasts and icy seas swept over the destroyer's deck. With numbed hands, strained eyes, and tensed nerves the lookout held his post until—eight bells—end of the midnight watch—then hot coffee in the galley!

JUST mention coffee to the men in the service and watch them smile. These brave fellows have endured long hours of hard labor with little rest. They have forced nature to the breaking point.

Coffee helped them. It cheered them and comforted them. Very often it actually sustained them. Its warmth rested and steadied them, and so gave them new courage for the great tasks ahead.

You men and women in every day life, waging the battle of business, striving to maintain place and power and health—you have great tasks, too. And you find coffee a real help in the day's work.

And the joy of it—the charm of it—the delight of it. It greets you at breakfast—it cheers you at luncheon—it revives you at dinner. And very often regales you at the late supper. Truly—what would your life be without coffee?

TWO WOMEN HELD FOR BIG SWINDLE AT KANSAS CITY

Promise of 100 Per Cent Returns Via Mysterious "Government Purchases" Lure Used to Snare Victims.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 15.—Two women, prominent locally, were arrested here yesterday in connection with an alleged swindle amounting to $175,000 in cash, according to estimates of the authorities. Notes given by reported victims amount to nearly $1,000,000. It was stated by E. J. Curtin, assistant prosecutor, but they will be pronounced valuable.

The women are Mrs. Samuel Tramm, wife of a produce merchant, and Mrs. R. E. Samis, wife of a motor car supply dealer. Both were arrested yesterday on warrants charging obtaining money under false pretenses. They pleaded not guilty and their preliminary hearings were set for May 27. They were released on $10,000 bond each.

According to the authorities, persons who invested said that they had been offered an opportunity on what was declared to be an "inside investment" in some commodity for which the government was about to enter the market. Returns of 100 per cent were offered and said to have been offered and to have been paid. A reinvestment, however, was requested, and in most cases notes were given.

Professional men, merchants and wealthy women are reported to have lost sums ranging as high as $40,000, while many working girls lost their savings. It was stated at the prosecutor's office that most of the victims of the alleged swindle were women. Assistant Prosecutor Curtin said, "One of them, 24 years old, told him that she had been threatened in case she should disclose her losses."

Admitted Theft. Mrs. Samis, according to E. J. Geitman, an attorney, who filed the complaints against the women, acted as solicitor for Mrs. Tramm. About three weeks ago, reports to the prosecutor's office said, Mrs. Tramm called many of her creditors to her home where she was giving a party. Mounting a piano stool, it is declared, she said: "Your money has been stolen. Do what you please."

Among the victims of the alleged swindle were two women who told the prosecutor they had lost $40,000 and $25,000, respectively. A minister reported a loss of $2,000. A man prominent in local politics said that he sold his motor car to invest $1,000, which he lost. A lawyer said that he had been victimized of $5,000. Numerous working girls reported losses of from $100 to $1,000.

The alleged fraud is said to have started four years ago. The first investments were small ones, it is stated. They grew larger and larger, however, as reports of the profitable investments were quickly circulated. The money obtained from one person was used to pay off another, it is declared. The most common "investment" were ostensible by being used to purchase oil holdings, in covering the platinum market, and in buying junk that it was stated the government was about to purchase.

No explanation was offered at the arraignment of Mrs. Tramm and Mrs. Samis to show where the money they are alleged to have received, has gone.

ADMITS LLOYD GEORGE ASKED IRISH TO CALL

LONDON, May 15.—Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons, admitted yesterday Premier Lloyd George had asked Frank P. Walsh, Edward Durns and Michael F. Ryan, representatives of Irish societies in the United States, to call on him. He had planned to do so before the British case and have it widely reported in America where it is insufficiently understood, Mr. Bonar Law said.

The premier has withdrawn the invitation, the government leader said, because while he is willing to receive Americans he is unwilling to receive those who "come to Ireland and not only to Ireland but to the United States, but also to religious movements."

HORVATH GIVEN COMMAND OF ALL-RUSSIAN TROOPS

OMSK, May 15. (By the Associated Press.)—Following the recall of Gen. Ivanoff-Rimoff, commander of the troops of the all-Russian government in Eastern Siberia, Gen. Horvath has been given full command of the forces there, in addition to holding the position of civil governor. This step has been taken so the government might have a more secure grasp on affairs in the east.

Gen. Ivanoff-Rimoff is charged with having interfered with business and having checked the activity of the Cosack battalions in establishing military control.

It is stated from a high government source the selection of Gen. Horvath for the command in the east was decided upon in the interest of better relations with the United States. Gen. Horvath is vice-president of the international commission in Eastern Siberia and has given repeated evidence of his friendliness for America. It is learned from the same source Gen. Semenov has been tendered a definite commission in the Siberian army under the all-Russian government.

NEGRO IS LYNCHED BY VICKSBURG MOB

Man Accused of Attempted Assault, Hanged and Burned.

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 15.—A mob of between 300 and 1,000 persons broke into the county jail here Wednesday night, overpowered Sheriff Frank Scott and 12 deputies, took Lloyd Clay, 24, negro, from his cell, marched him to the heart of the city and hanged him with a rope to the limb of an elm tree, at the same time placing a bonfire under him, after saturating his head with oil. The negro died while a fusillade of shots were being fired into his body. M. G. Cockrell, a deputy, was internally injured with a railroad iron from the mob being fired into the doors of the jail.

Clay was arrested early Wednesday by Sheriff Scott on charges of having assaulted a white girl at the home of a prominent citizen here. It was alleged that he entered the girl's room early Wednesday morning. She screamed, it was said, whereat the negro ran, the girl tearing a piece of cloth from his coat. This was used to give a pair of bloodhounds a clue, and the dogs trailed Clay to the Alabama & Vicksburg railway station here. He was taken to jail, where the young woman was asked to identify him. She told the authorities she was not positive Clay was the negro. The girl, it was said, was not injured.

Last night a crowd assembled around the jail. Sheriff Scott remonstrated with them, and while addressing the crowd, a railroad iron, in the hands of the mob, was brought into play. The mob broke down three sets of steel doors, finally forcing their way to Clay's cell. When they appeared, Clay is quoted as saying:

"Give me a minute and I'll tell you who the other negro is—"

But his words were choked off and the mob carried him to the street where he was placed on an automobile truck and taken to the scene where the lynching occurred.

The elm tree where the lynching took place is near the home where the alleged assault occurred. A rope was fastened around Clay's neck and oil applied to his head. Clay, it is said, tried to lift himself up by the rope, and his hands were tied. As he was swung from the ground a match was applied to his head and a bonfire started under his feet. A fusillade of shots into the body followed. Charles Lee, a mob member, was shot through the head and it is believed he is fatally wounded. Bennie Stafford, another onlooker, was shot through the arm. Clay's body was put down about 10 o'clock last night and prepared for burial.
